ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Occupancy for all students is in quadruple rooms with 4 individual beds.
- Parents/chaperones will be hosted in a double occupancy room with either 2 single beds or one matrimonial bed.
- You will need money for incidentals. Most of your meals will be covered, however if you choose to go out for gelato, snacks, coffee you will be responsible for those charges so please plan accordingly.
- During travel date of July 1st and July 2nd you will be provided 2 meals on the flight typically dinner and breakfast. You will be responsible for lunch on July 2nd and any food during our layover in Zurich. July 9th you will be provided breakfast and a bag lunch, however dinner will be at your own expense while sightseeing in Rome.
- Sightseeing while in Rome: If you choose to go to any of the Vatican museums such as the Sistine Chapel, entry to the Colosseum you will be responsible for those expenses.
- Currency: The official currency of Italy is the euro. It is best and suggested you primarily use a credit card while overseas for expenses. Debit cards typically are ok as well, but we can't guarantee you won't run into any issues. Most ATM's will accept debit/credit cards for cash withdrawals...this is the best way to get the current exchange rate. Remember to call your credit card company and notify them of your travel overseas.
- Euros: you should contact AAA to order euros in advance. You do not need to be a member, however there will be a fee of around $10-$15. Euros will need to be ordered and they can take anywhere from 3-4 business days so plan accordingly. Our local AAA # is 518-831-1860 and they are located at 1647 US-9 in Halfmoon. You can also call your local bank, Bank of America or TD Bank in Albany to inquire about purchasing euros.
